TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 22, 18 30.

Equal to THEM -A good story is told in Edinburgh about that genial Grecian, Profesgor Bischie. One day, shortly before the close of the late session, the professor being through some cause prevented from lecturing, there was posted on the forcek class room door a notice to this effect: "Professor Bleckie regrets he is un able t -lay to most his classes." A waggish student spying this, scraped out the initial letter of the last word of the sentence, and made it appear as if the professor was regret'ul at his in-ability to maet those fair specimens of humanity familiarly known outside the college quadrangle as the "lasses." But who can joke with Biackie! The keen-eyed old man, noticing the prank that The keen-eyed old man, noticing the prank that had been played on him, quietly erased another letter, and left the following to be read by who is unable to-day to meet his asses!

In a lengthy obilinary notice of a prominent Western man, the leading local papter makes this remarkable statement:

"The corpse was elegantly oled by direction of his devoted wife, and his cost et was made to conform, as far as possible, with the comforts he was wat to surround hims if in the home he has left.

It is stated that Iodian corn charred into chircoal will make a valuable condiment for poultry. It will put the hens in good bealth, and consens general toping up of the system that will be seen in more and better eggs.

JANNEY'S WHARF FLOOK STAIN for staining halls, steir-ways and the floors of rooms it is desired to leave uncarpeted during the summer season. We have been preparing this article for many years past, and have sold large quantities of it in various localities and with universal satisfaction to those who have used it. It is a rich walnut in color (either light or dark as may be wanted), can be ppiied by any one with a sponge or brush, dries readily and can be kept clean by simply wiping the floor off with warm suds and a cloth. On ordinary smooth planks one half gailon is generally sufficient to stain the floor of a room 16 to 18 feet square. Price $2 per gal-
